Video: “The order” video is released

Music: New music featured on the Global Warning and All City Chop Compilation’s

Label: Subnoise.com / Tyronesmusic.com

Tyrone releases the video for “The order” the 3rd single off; “Heavy Labor, no breaks”. The song and video features DJ Seabefore of the Zulu Nation and has been a staple on community and Internet radio since the album’s release. The video was directed and produced by Tyrone; adding another aspect to his creative repertoire.

The video pushes “the workin’ class hero” to explore new avenues; enabling Tyrone the artist to put a visual to his unique sound. “Directing and editing film has always been an interest of mine; it inspires me to create, I always tried to explain my music through words and sound, but nothing beats a visual”.

The central coast California’s Twizy records released volume one of the “Global warning” compilation series; and its circulating through the underground and Internet radio station’s worldwide. The compilation / mixtape features hard working independent artists from California to Seattle. Future volumes will contain artists from all over the country. Tyrone’s new release “The tool guy” has been well received by fans worldwide.

The Mint Factory Clothing Company releases the All City Chop mixtape series. The third installment features major artists like; Shabazz Palaces and independent artists from the all over the northwest. Mixed by Zechariah the barber the mixtape is favored by hip hop fans as kind of a “one stop sampler” of all the various styles of Northwest hip hop. Be sure to checkout the “chopped and screwed” version of “The coolest bruva”.

Tyrone’s debut album “Heavy labor, no breaks”, was favored by critics and received great reviews worldwide... Be on the look out for more music, video’s and short films from Tyrone. For more info, to hear album, read reviews, watch videos or see discography, go to www.tyronesmusic.com...
