Tyrone scores adidas 2009 MLB commercial featuring J.J Putz

Artist: Tyrone

Album: Heavy labor, no breaks...

Label: Subnoise.com / Tyronesmusic.com

After the release of his stellar debut, Heavy labor, no breaks, the artist none as “the working class hero” got back into another one of his passions; scoring movies and commercials. After the success of Snowboarder Magazine’s “ Couching Tiger “ coupled with the momentum of the album, the artist / producer has been called on to add his creative musical touch to score commercials that brand clothing and create the much needed background for a few indie films.

The adidas campaign is throughout the 2009 Major League Baseball season. The commercials that Tyrone produced / engineered will be featured on adidas.com, adidas.tv, Eastbay.com and in adidas brand stores worldwide. Tyrone is credited for engineering the score for 11 MLB players, producing the J.J Putz commercial score and co producing the Ryan Howard’s commercial score.

Tyrone’s discography and client list speaks for itself, with album credits of all genre’s, an album that received great reviews, commercials for all types of products, an extensive engineering background and movie scoring; the artist / musician is well on his way to being a sought after music producer. Tyrone has the creativity to take the clients vision to unimaginable levels.

Tyrone’s debut album “Heavy labor, no breaks”, speaks on subject matters from work, spirituality to the daunting task of positively raising a family in the perils of the inner city through a “blue collar working man’s perspective”. The album was favored by critics and received great reviews... For more info, to hear album, read reviews, see discography and contact, go to www.tyronesmusic.com...
